Gina Alessandri

Hemp Director, MDARD

After 80 years of federal prohibition, industrial hemp production is now legal across the country. Gina will provide an overview of MDARD's developing Industrial Hemp Program and discuss some of the challenges the industry is facing.

Christie Apple "CropScout Christie"

Agronomy & Soil Health Specialist

CropScout Christie, as she is known on social media, will be bringing us some practical coaching on how to have a positive outcome for your farm's hemp venture. Learning on her field experience, she will be breaking down some critical problem clusters growers face and simplify the fertility, soil health, and pest management concepts.
